Getting Old?

Amy and Jamie are old friends. They have both been married to their husbands for a long time; Amy is upset because she thinks her husband doesn't find her attractive anymore.

"As I get older he doesn't bother to look at me!" Amy cries.

"I'm so sorry for you, as I get older my husband says I get more beautiful every day." replies Jamie.

"Yes, but your husband's an antique dealer!"

Golf

A young man, who loved to golf, found himself with a few hours to spare one afternoon. He thought that if he hurried and played fast, he could get in 9 holes before he had to go home.

Just before he teed off, an older gentleman strolled onto the tee box and asked if he could accompany the young man for the round. Not able to say no, the young man allowed the old man to join him for the round.

To the young man's surprise, the old gentleman played fairly quickly. He didn't hit the ball too far, but plodded along consistently and didn't waste much time.

Finally, they reached the 9th fairway and the young man found himself with a difficult shot. Directly between his ball and the green stood a large pine tree.

After debating what is best shot was for several minutes, the old man finally said, "You know, when I was your age, I'd hit the ball right over that tree."

Running out of time and a challenge like that placed before him, the youngster took a good swing and hit the ball straight up. It smacked the top of the tree trunk and thudded back on the ground not more than a foot from where it originally was.

The old man offered one more comment, "Of course, when I was your age, that pine tree was only 3 feet tall."
